

Attachments

Select the location where the file exists, then double click on the file to attach it. You will see an icon for the attached file in the bottom portion of the message you are sending.

