

WEST MILFORD TOWNSHIP PUBLIC SCHOOLS

MARSHALL HILL SCHOOL

PARENT INVOLVEMENT POLICY

Marshall Hill School, consistent with the West Milford Township Board of Education policies, is committed to establishing a meaningful home, school and community partnership.

To that end, the following Parent Involvement Policy was developed collaboratively with parents of the Marshall Hill School who make up our Parent Advisory Committee. We believe the parent is the first teacher and we want to encourage our parents to remain involved in the child's education throughout their academic lifetime.

- The Marshall Hill School and Parent Advisory Committee (PAC) will jointly develop the Parent Involvement Policy (PIP).
- The Marshall Hill School will distribute the Parent Involvement Policy and parent/teacher, student/school compact to the parents of all students and make the Parent Involvement Policy available to the local community.
- The Marshall Hill School & PAC will periodically review and revise the PIP and parent/teacher, student/school compact to meet the changing needs of parents and our school.

Marshall Hill School agrees to be governed by the following statutory definition of parental involvement, and will carry out programs, activities and procedures in accordance with this definition:

- Parental involvement means the participation of parents in regular, two-way and meaningful communication involving student academic learning and other school activities, including ensuring:
  - Parents play an integral role in assisting their child's learning.
  - Parents are encouraged to be actively involved in their child's education at school.
  - That parents are full partners in their child's education and are included, as appropriate, in decision-making and on advisory committees to assist in the education of their child.
  - The carrying out of other activities, such as those described in section 1118 of the ESEA.

IMPLEMENTATION OF THE PARENT INVOLVEMENT POLICY PLAN

Marshall Hill School will keep parents involved and informed by offering the following programs:

- Make available for parent review the following materials:
  - District wide Parent Involvement Policy
  - Marshall Hill School's Parent Involvement Policy
  - The district School Parent Compact
  - Parent notification of all school programs and of Title I programs/activities.
    - These materials will be distributed to parents at regular Title I parent meetings, Parent Advisory Committee meetings, PTA meetings, parent/teacher conferences, Back to School Night, school newsletter, school website, and written communication with parents, if eligible, for Title I. In addition, parents of newly eligible participating students will receive the policy upon registration.
- Marshall Hill School will convene at an annual meeting to inform parents of the following:
  - That Marshall Hill School is eligible for Title I status.
  - The requirement of Title I and Parent/Student Rights covered by Title I regulations.
  - Criteria for eligibility and exit criteria for Title programs, including multiple measures used for assessing eligibility.
  - Notification of meetings will be administered through home/school letters, newsletters, the web page and the automated phone system.
  - New Jersey Student Learning Standards
  - NJSLA Testing

To encourage parents' attendance, the school will offer training to parents to improve student success and achievement.

Marshall Hill School will provide parents of participating children with a description and explanation of the curricula in use at our school. The diagnostics used to measure student progress and the grade level expectations students are expected to be met through:

- Annual Title I parent meetings

- Representative participation in the district level Title I Parent Involvement Committee
- Parent/teacher conferences
- PAC/PTA and family activities throughout the year
- Back to School Night
- Trimester Report Cards
- Realtime (automated grade review); School Messenger Marshall Hill School will provide parents of participating children opportunities to participate in the Parent Advisory Committee and make meetings, surveys or pre arranged meetings with the Title I coordinator, the principal or other appropriate staff.

Parents at any time can submit comments/suggestions in writing regarding the school PIP to their child's teacher, the Title I coordinator or principal.
